

Fact Sheet

Corporate Overview

Founded in 1888 by Chicago physician Dr. Wallace C. Abbott, Abbott has emerged as one of the world's most diverse health care companies. Abbott is ranked as the most admired company in the pharmaceutical industry in 2010 by FORTUNE magazine and is No. 75 on the FORTUNE 500 list. The company has approximately 83,000 employees worldwide serving customers in more than 130 countries and is headquartered in north suburban Chicago, USA.

Principal Officer

Miles D. White, chairman and CEO, since 1999

Key 2009 Financial Measures

- Revenue: $30.8B
- Net Income (excluding items): $5.8B
- R&D Investment: $2.7B
- Dividend: 38 years of consecutive increases (10% increase in 2010)

Primary Businesses

- Medical Products – Key lines of business include vascular, laboratory and molecular diagnostics, vision care and diabetes
- Nutritional Products – Abbott offers a variety of nutrition products for infants, children, active adults and patients with special dietary needs
- Pharmaceuticals – Key therapeutic areas include immunology, cardiology and infectious diseases

Recognition

- FORTUNE: Among "America's Most Admired Companies," 1984-present
- Barron's: Listed No. 24 in 2010 ranking of world's 100 most respected companies
- Dow Jones Sustainability Index: Listed among world leaders in economic, environmental and social performance five straight years
- Wall Street Journal: Named the overall Gold winner of the 2009 Technology Innovation Awards for Ibis T5000 Biosensor system
- Working Mother: "100 Best Companies for Working Mothers" nine straight years
- BusinessWeek: One of "50 Best Places to Launch a Career" four straight years
- DiversityInc: "50 Best Companies for Diversity" six straight years
- Recognized as a top employer in countries around the world including Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Croatia, Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Korea, the Netherlands, Norway, Slovak Republic, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland, UK and the U.S.